

NAASE General Meeting

Sunday, June 30, 2013, 11:15 a.m. – Seattle, WA

Approval of 2012 minutes - Approved

Secretary's report – Election results

Secretary's report submitted by Victor Matheson

Peter von Allmen elected to 1-year term as President Elect and 2-year term as President. (Note: in 2014 we will elect a president to a 2-year term as President Elect and 2-year term as President with no presidential election in 2015.)

Stephen Walters elected to 4-year term and Todd Jewell elected to 2-year term as at-large executive board members. (Note: in 2014 we will again elect one 4-year term and one 2-year term at-large member. In 2015, we will elect only 1 at-large member for a 4-year term.)

Treasurer's report submitted by John Solow

The North American Association of Sports Economists has 114 members in good standing, representing 12 countries as of mid-June.

The Association's current financial assets as of May 31, 2013 were as follows:

Checking Account, USBank, Iowa City, IA:	$845.06
PayPal Account:	$9,360.82
Total:	$10,205.88

The Association's current liabilities consist of the remaining subscriptions of the current members, which vary depending on when each member's subscription year ends, at $5 per issue ($30 for a one year, six issue subscription). These amount to $2,265 (453 issues at $5 per issue).

President's report – Concise version: "Thank you for a wonderful term."

Presentation of service awards to retiring and former Executive Board members.

Announced resumption of the reception for next year.

Announced inauguration of graduate student paper award.

Announced interest in expanding NAASE contributions to the Sportseconomist blog.

Members are invited to sponsor NAASE sessions at any conference they are attending.

WEAI - Brad Humphreys. How to better represent NAASE. Get a member on board of WEAI.

Stefan Szymanski – EASE information. Conference in Southern Denmark. 92 papers submitted. 62 members currently. Antwerp in 2014 September. Call for papers upcoming.

Thanks go out to IASE for co-hosing sessions with NAASE.